

Diabetes Centers Planned

Free diabetes testing clinics will be operated in the Torrance area during "Diabetes Detection Week" which begins Monday.

The free testing program, available to persons of all ages, is sponsored by the Diabetes Association of Southern California.

Clinics will be located at the Harbor City Recreation Center, 24901 Frampton Ave., Wednesday, Nov. 16, from 9 a.m. until 9 p.m., and at the Torrance Health Center, 2300 W. Carson St., Sunday, Nov. 20, from 1 until 4 p.m.

The association estimates that 50,000 or more persons in the Los Angeles Metropolitan Area suffer from undetected diabetes.

HEALTH SERVICES UP

By the end of the 1950's the Los Angeles Heart Association reports, the health services industry rose from fifth - ranking employment field in the nation to third place. By the end of this decade, it may rank first, ahead of agriculture and construction.

Chapel Grateful to Voters for Support

By CHARLES E. CHAPEL

Assemblyman, 46th District

First, I want to thank all those who voted for me on Nov. 8, all those who contributed to my campaign fund, and the newspapers and organizations which endorsed me for re-election.

On the first Monday in January, 1967, I will have completed exactly 16 years in the Assembly. I shall again take the oath and begin my 17th year as your representative from the 46th Assembly District. Thanks again!

NOV. 10 each year is the birthday of the United States Marine Corps. Although it is neither a State holiday nor a National holiday, you may want to hang out the National Colors in honor of the thousands of marines who are fighting and dying for you and me in Viet Nam.

November 11 is both a State holiday and a National holiday. It was originally known as Armistice Day, a term which began in World War I, but for several years it has been known as Veterans Day, in honor of the veterans of all the wars, past and present. Every home and every business house should fly the National Colors on Nov. 11.

THERE IS NO question about the urgent necessity to do something to reduce the taxes on homes. An important portion of the taxes on homes is levied to support public education, hence the Legislature has several alternatives.

First, we can raise the State sales tax and earmark by law a certain percentage of it for public education. Second, we can raise the State sales tax, earmark part of it for schools and earmark the remainder for a return to cities and counties, thereby reducing the taxes on homes even more.

THERE ARE several things wrong with both of these alternatives. One very obvious problem is that shifting the taxes from homes to those who make the purchases resulting in sales tax increase not a true tax reduction but only robbing one pocket of the taxpayer instead of the other pocket.

Several people have advocated increasing the state income tax, the state corporation tax, etc. Here again, we are not really reducing taxes at all. If we increase the tax on corporations, the corporations raise their prices and in the long run the homeowners pay the tax but in another manner. The very obvious way to reduce taxes at all levels, federal, state, county, and city is for all levels of government to spend less on foolish projects.

TAXES ARE like the rain that falls from heaven. Taxes always fall down the same as the rain falls down. Taxes fall on the rich and the poor, on saints and sinners. Death is the only apparent escape from taxes but even then there is a tax on the coffin, the embalming fluid, and on the hearse which the friendly undertaker uses to haul the loved one to the heavily taxed cemetery.

Taxes do not stop with the burial of the dead. The State of California has an Inheritance Tax. I shall not continue to recite the taxes that do not cease with death.

IF YOU KNOW any sensible way for the State of California to reduce taxes on anything, in any manner, write to me at Post Office Box 327, Redondo Beach, and tell me your method. Anyone can suggest several ways to raise taxes. I have received a vast amount of advice on this already but what I am interested in is tax reduction.

Even more important, I am interested in receiving letters on where the State of California, acting through the Legislature, can spend less money because it seems obvious to me that if the State spends less it can tax less.

Of course, everyone has some pet project which will require more State money. In the same letter asking me to vote for some appropriation for a pet project there is always a request that I vote against tax increases, or the levy of new State taxes. I have been doing that for the past 16 years, I am glad to report.

Art Clubs Plan Show In Lomita

Plans for a combined art exhibit featuring the work of the members of art associations of the south Los Angeles area will be a matter for discussion Sunday when officers of the four local art groups meet at the studio of artist Leland Hall, 2234 W. 239th St., Lomita.

The exhibit, now planned for Dec. 3 and 4 — probably in the Lomita Park Recreation Hall, 24428 Eschelmann Ave.—is expected to draw from other art clubs in the Southwest.

Hall, president of the Palette Art Club, has been joined by Jean Blessing, president of the El Segundo Art Association; Robert Tagenstrom, president of the South Bay Art Association; and Leo Reide, president of the Gardena Valley Art Association in preparation for the December show. Meeting with the presidents in October was Neale Henry, secretary-treasurer of the Palette Club.

Plans for a permanent affiliated organization to coordinate and promote the visual arts of the area and to work with the South Los Angeles Arts Council in its efforts to secure a cultural center for the area, Hall told the Press-Herald.
